

My name is Linda Davis, President of the Cleveland Stroke Club. I had my stroke four years ago, and I have been with the Cleveland Stroke Club for three years. I have learned a lot from them; I don't try anymore to go back to my old self. But look forward to a new life with new friends that know and understand how I feel about myself now.

Please come and join us. We can help each other.